Vice Chancellor's Note

Bangladesh University of Professionals (BUP) has published the 37th edition of the BUP Newsletter. Keeping the motto "Excellence through Knowledge" in mind, the BUP Newsletter serves as a way for alums to stay in touch with their alma mater and share information about events in a fair and balanced way. Principally, BUP aims to provide outcome and knowledge-based education through diverse disciplines to make solid footprints nationally and globally. We are determined to maintain quality and excellence in all university operations to take the students' courage and venture into the world with their high heads. However, this newsletter reflects the BUP family's contribution to accelerating the university's progress. We are glad to share university activities that have kept the university fraternity engaged in the past few months starting from 01 January 2023 to 30 April 2023. Within this tenure, several eventful activities have been held in BUP, like the 6th Convocation, Observance of Martyrs' Day and International Mother Language Day, Celebration of Bangabandhu's Birth Anniversary and National Children's Day, Celebration of Independence and National Day, Genocide Day, Seminars, Workshops, Admission Test, Visit of Delegates, Various Achievements, and so on.

I want to thank the Editorial Board for working hard and doing their jobs to make this publication successful and hope such endeavours will continue in the future.

BUP 6th Convocation 2023

The 6th Convocation of Bangladesh University of Professionals (BUP) 2023 was held on 22 February 2023 at BUP Campus in Mirpur Cantonment. Honourable President of the People's Republic of Bangladesh and Chancellor of the University Mr. Md. Abdul Hamid graced the occasion as the Chief guest. General S M Shafiuddin Ahmed, the Chief of Army Staff, Bangladesh Army has delivered his inspiring speech as the Convocation Speaker. The Hon'ble Minister for Education Dr. Dipu Moni, M.P had graced the occasion as Special Guest.

At the very outset, the honourable Chair of the convocation congratulated the graduates for obtaining their respective academic degrees and urged upon them to contribute significantly in building a happy, prosperous, self-reliant and dignified Bangladesh as envisaged by the Father of the Nation Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman. The honourable Chancellor further emphasized that education should not be meant merely for securing certificates by going through notebooks; rather it must turn one as an “enlightened individual”. While sharing his wisdom, respected convocation speaker urged upon all to build the Sonar Bangla instilling patriotism in everyone’s consciousness, thoughts, and actions as dreamt by the father of the nation Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman. He also stated that the wisdom and knowledge gained by all concerned students should be utilized for public welfare in implementing Vision 2041. While addressing the graduates, the respected Vice Chancellor of BUP, Major General Md Mahbub-ul Alam mentioned that the life ahead is more exceptional, challenging, and competitive than what they have already passed through. He also stated that the education and knowledge gained from this university will enable them to meet future challenges. He specifically mentioned that BUP is committed to produce well-disciplined and spirited citizens and is constantly striving to achieve that goal. A total of 4880 graduates had participated in the convocation which includes the foreign guests. Amongst them, 36 students were awarded with Chancellor’s Gold Medal followed by 29 students with Vice Chancellor’s Gold Medal for their outstanding performances. Among others, the Honourable State Minister for education, the Acting Chiefs of Bangladesh Navy and Air Force, the Members of Parliament, some distinguished personalities including Secretaries, media personalities, academicians, dignitaries from Armed Forces and various walks of life, senior officials of BUP, faculty members and students were also present in the convocation.
